On 7th of September 2021, the ADMINS partnership organised an online training on “Basic of Sports Management” to showcase the third module of the ADMINS learning toolkit. It was decided for the training to take place online instead of onsite due to the measures related to the COVID pandemic. Nevertheless, the ADMINS partnership reached a satisfactory amount of international online attendees.

The online training was facilitated by Verica Mance (PAR) who presented the module on sports management. Participants were introduced to the categorization of sports events and the process of organization of a sports event, together with all related subtopics such as creation and management of sports events balance sheets, calculation of expenses and income, and risk management. As a field closely related to the subject of this module, sport tourism was also discussed, particularly trends in sport tourism and community analysis.

Currently, the partners are already developing the remaining three modules in the ADMINS training curriculum which cover different relevant topics for sport administration:
